meet perfection

I bought my first GITZO in 1971, which was also the year I turned a professional photographer in Cape Town, South Africa. At that time it was the only serious versatile tripod one could buy. It was the professional photographers' tripod of choice because it was made and gave one solid support at all times. Today Gitzo still remains the tripod of choice worldwide. It's sense Form, Function and Finish is what sets it apart from the rest and is very evident when one first lays eyes on any new Gitzo product. A true thing of beauty. Gitzo is in a class of its own.

I truly love the product...ask my crew. Harry De Zitter
